HE

RALD

1951

Mr. David D. Thompson

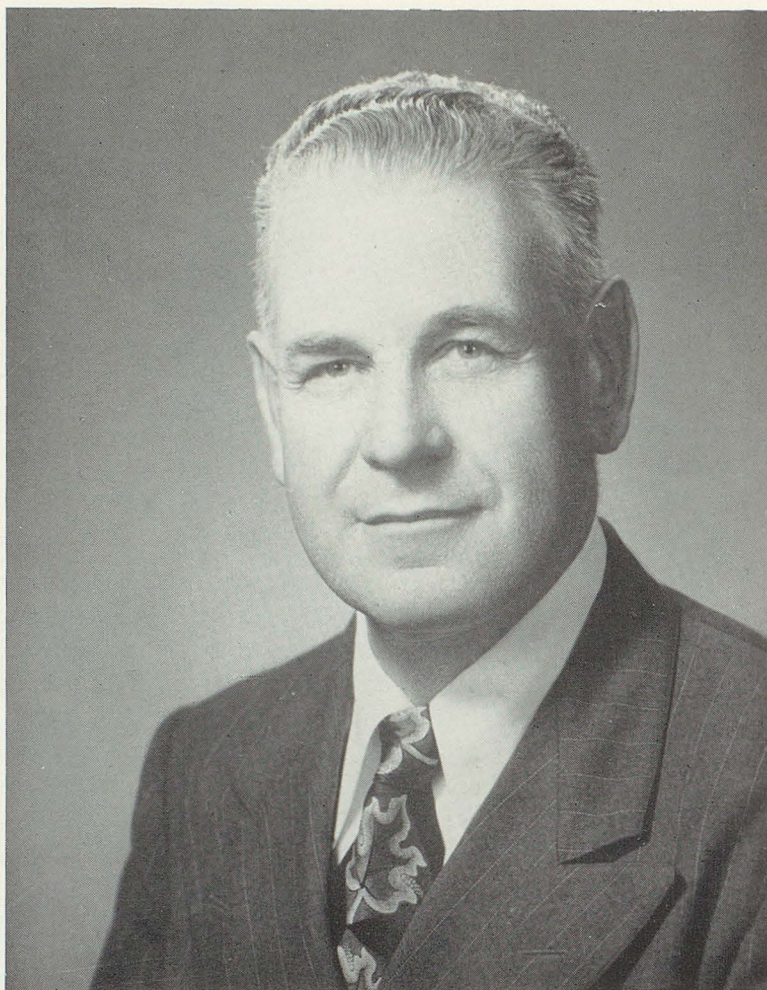

DEDICATION

TO MR. DAVID D. THOMPSON who for nine years has served the students of Gould Academy by sending many of them on to college with a very thorough background of the English language and who has chosen, from the student body, casts for the many plays which he has coached and presented here at Gould, plays which are anticipated with pleasure by those living in Bethel and in nearby towns, goes the sincere thanks of the Editorial Board of 1951, as we respectfully dedicate to him this sixty-fifth issue of the ACADEMY HERALD.

Benediction

Doris Sturtevant

As the resonant tones of War March of the Priests again filled the gym, the Class of 1950 filed out, ready to face the problems of an unsettled world, secure in the knowledge that Gould had done her best to prepare them for the decisions they would have to make. So, with high hopes and confidence in their hearts, another graduating class followed over the path so many others before them had trod; the Commencement Program of 1950 was over.

With the Juniors

Well, here we are jolly juniors, and many of our actions prove this fact. Yes, we are a happy-go-lucky class, full of fun and always cheerful, and why shouldn't we be? We've got one of the best classes, and we've made many lasting friends. I'll tell you a little about each member of our class, so you can see why we get along so well together. First I'll mention that the class officers were boys this year. They are as follows:

President	Peter Johnson
Vice-President	Robert Patterson
Secretary	Donald Bennett
Treasurer	Peter Hussey

Here is the rest of the class:

ROGER ADAMS

"He flies through the air with the greatest of ease—

The daring young man on the light pair of skis."

HENRI AGNESE

"Whatever the future shall send,
He shall be wanted by his fellow men."

ALAN AWALT

Politeness goes far, yet costs nothing.

CAROL BARTON

"Her friends — they are many,
Her foes — are there any?"

DONALD BENNETT

"Sometimes the power of my brain scares me."

DEBORAH BEVERIDGE

"She has the two noblest things, which are sweetness and light."

ANDREW BIDEN

"To those who know him best,
A friend most true and hearty;
To those who know him least,
A very quiet party."

ARNOL BROWN

"You come late, yet you come."

CAROLYN BROWN

"A giggle, a grin, a double chin,
You just can bet it's mischief she's in."

SALLY BROWN

"It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice."

JOAN CORKUM

"Calm, cool and collected and more often seen than heard."

SOLON CROTEAU

"Begone my cares! I give you to the winds."

SUSAN DARCY

"That twinkle in thine eyes betokens mischief."

BOB-RAY DAVIS

"He touches nothing but he adds a charm."

PATRICIA DAVIS

"The ups and downs of life do not disturb me."

MAROLYN DAYE

"She smiles away the cares of the day."

DOROTHY DEAN

"Always laughing, full of fun,
She gets along with everyone."

ERNESTINE DOREY

Speech is silver, but silence is gold.
Tina is proof of this proverb old.

SARAH DORION

"You know I say just what I think, and nothing more or less."

NANCY DUPEE

"I hate men; they irritate me, but oh, how I love to be irritated."

JANE EDWARDS

"Here is the voice to hear; to all she lends an ear, for she is the friend of all."

MADELINE EMERY

"Her smile shows the rippling of a blush."

NORMAN FERGUSON

"Face the future with a smile."

GERALD FORTIN

"All great men get lazy. Gee, I'm tired."

CONSTANCE GARDNER

"A subtle humour and a smile,
She carries with her all the while."

WAYNE GILMAN

"As good natured a soul as e'er trod on shoe of leather."

JOHN HILLMAN

"All the great men are dying, and I'm not feeling well."

NORAH HORSFIELD

"Soft happiness she brings whenever she arrives."

LAWRENCE HOWARD

"Don't talk to me of women,
Talk to me of something sensible."

PETER HUSSEY

"An honest man, close-button'd to the chin,
Broad cloth without, and a warm heart within."

PETER JOHNSON

"There's a lot of women he hath charmed,
You may be next so don't be alarmed."

ARNOLD JORDAN

"I have learned silence from the talkative."

DAVID JORDON

"Judge him well by his inches."

LAURIER KITTREDGE

"Oh, what may man within him hide,
Though angel on the outward side."

KATHRYN KNOWLES

"A good sport is she, a jolly good friend,
On whom for anything one may depend."

MICHAEL LAWTHERS

Mike's an artist rare,
He draws pictures for every affair.

JANICE LORD

"Fun and frolic and glee were there,
The will to do, the soul to dare."

PHILIP LOVEJOY

He has a sweet tooth for girls.

HELEN LUNT

"Care to our coffin adds a nail, no doubt;
And every grin so merry draws one out."

JANE MUMFORD

"She's pretty and sweet, a graceful dancer that

With the Sophomores

The class of fifty-three has now quite firmly established itself at Gould. At the beginning of the year it was disappointing to note the absence of many former classmates. There were almost as many new faces, however. Our number now fixes itself at sixty-eight.

The class officers are as follows:

President	Beverly Lurvey
Vice President	Edward Hastings
Secretary	Barbara Cole
Treasurer	Dennis Wilson

The entire class follows, each with a song title of its very own.

With the Freshmen

Although we entered Gould in the fall feeling as green as any other freshman class, we soon got into the swing of things and are now well represented in most school activities. The music department claims a large number of the class, while many are also in sports, the Camera Club, and other organizations. Our class of sixty-six members chose the class colors of cerise and white and elected the following officers at the beginning of the year.

President	Paul Fossett
Vice President	Herbert Adams
Secretary	Donna Anderson
Treasurer	Frank Flint

An unkind fate has ordained that we predict the future of the freshman class. We beg each person named to forgive us if we have failed to flatter his or her anticipations. So, glance with us as we unfold the pages of history that yet remain to be made, pages where we have pictured these faltering youths in the not too far future. Alas—we look and find:

HERBERT ADAMS — with all of his athletic ability, will become a star quarterback for Notre Dame

DONNA ANDERSON — will be a replacement for Faye Emerson on T. V.

HUGH AWALT — is certain to become a well-known radio announcer for the program "Medicine Marches On" sponsored by Mother Shills' Arsenic Pills.

- ALBERTA BAKER — will become a movie critic so that she will have a good excuse to see every change of show.
- DOROTHY BARTLETT — will join the "Yankees" where she will be water girl and bench warmer.
- LINDON BARTLETT — will go to Washington and set up chairs in the Senate.
- JOAN BENNETT — will travel to the South Sea Islands where she will teach dancing in six easy lessons.
- RUTH BISHOP — will probably spend most of her time shellacing pretzels in the Bethel restaurant.
- ROBERT BLAKE — after many experiments, will invent a musical bomb which will drive the Russians frantic.
- JANE BLAKEMORE — will tell everyone "How to pursue your man inconspicuously!"
- JERI BROWN — will join the Waves to see the Coast Guard.
- BETTY ANN BUTTERS — will start a club for doughnut hole eating addicts.
- NANCY CARVER — will invent a new pressure cooker, and later she will tour Africa selling them to cannibals.
- STEVEN CLOUGH — is likely to become a physical education director and be a barber in his spare time.
- JOAN CONNOR — will appoint herself a committee of one to campaign for better skating rinks.
- PHILIP COREY — will tour the United States lecturing on the topic "The Grave Yard is Full of People Who Were in a Hurry."
- LIONEL COULOMBE — will become editor of the Gloomy Gurgle (a newspaper!)
- ROBERT CURTIS — will pilot a jet plane for the president in 1968.
- MARY ELLEN DOUGLASS — will liven up everyone's days with those mischievous glances of hers.
- PRISCILLA EAMES — will pose for Lustre Cream Shampoo advertisements.
- DAVID FLEET — will continue to take those prize trophies when hunting.
- FRANK FLINT — our musical genius, will rise to fame in the field of music as a piano tuner.
- VAN GALE — will design flies which fool those elusive fish.
- DAVID GOVE — is certain to become king of the Fiji Islands.
- ATHALIE HALL — will make a career of selling hair brushes to bald headed men.
- HELEN HOLT — will still be writing those rip roaring westerns.
- MURIEL HALL — will appear as guest star on the "Lucky Strike" program.
- SANDRA HATCH — will write a book "How to Eat, Stay Thin, and not Get Conceited about It."
- JO ANNE HORN — will continue to be a walking argument for the "Lone Star State."
- PERDITA HUSTON — is fully expected to make a lecture tour on "Why Classrooms Should Be Heated."
- ROBERT HUTCHINSON — will work as repairman for stock cars.
- ARLAN JODREY — will pose as Donald Duck for Walt Disney's cartoons.
- FLOYD KIMBALL — will have the reputation of being the fastest cab driver in New York City.
- MARY KNEELAND — will set herself up in business "gold-framing" those special Algebra papers.
- JANET KORHONEN — will establish a rest home for retired cheerleaders.
- LEROY LEARNED — will join the circus and water elephants.
- PATRICIA LEARNED — will perfect a fast-proof method for shooting foul shots.
- ROBERT LINGHAM — without doubt Bob will find himself at Middlebury as a ski coach.
- RICHARD LITTLEFIELD — will still be searching for that well-built 5' 2" brunette.
- MARLENE MARSHALL — will be the first woman manager for the "Globetrotters."
- EDMUND MASON — will invent a new two-wheeled automobile that runs on steam.
- CARROLL MELVILLE — will become a basketball coach at Springfield College.
- LEE MERRILL — after his success last fall, will portray "Deerslayer" on the stage.
- THELMA MORSE — will be a hat check girl for magicians.
- SHEILA NARY — will continue to act as our little "match maker."
- RAYMOND NOWLIN — will star weekly on "The Hit Parade."
- RUSSELL NUTTING — will be a successor to Digger O'Dell, the friendly undertaker who soon will be shoveling off.

BEVERLY ONOFRIO—will draw pictures on classroom walls for the benefit of bored students.

RICHARD ONOFRIO—will be right hand man to George Petty.

MATILDA SKILLINGS—will be envied by all Toni users and thus be sought after by some jealous female.

LEWIS SMITH—will work on an Indian reservation and will be top man on the totem pole.

RODERICK SWIFT—in one of his many science experiments, will blow up the lab.

ROBERTA SYNDER—will fulfill her ambition to be a retired millionaire.

RONALD SYNDER—will become Wall Street's most successful broker.

JANICE STEARNS—will become the proud owner of a Cadillac convertible and will chauffeur us all to school for $.10 a day.

VALERIA STEVENS—will devote her life to writing books which will closely approach the popularity of Goldilocks and Cinderella.

BERTHA TAYLOR—will simplify Tanner's English for the benefit of future freshmen.

RICHARD TYLER—will invent a medicine which will promote at least 12 inches of growth in one week.

GAIL WALDRON—will take advantage of her lovely voice and deliver singing telegrams for Western Union.

STANLEY WALKER—will count the measles in a case.

RICHARD WATERHOUSE—will work in a "power house."

GENE WHITE—will sign a contract with the Boston Red Sox and ride the bases in a Model T Ford.

ROY WERMENCHUCK—will navigate a flatboat down the Nile River.

NANCY WILLARD—our version of Jane Wyman, will become a Latin professor at the University of Maine.

Gehring Hall

Probably the majority of Gould's students have at one time, for one reason or another, been inside the portals of the architecture known as Gehring Hall; but, except for the inmates themselves, how many have ever toured the girls' dorm at a moment when visitors are least expected? Take, for instance, the night before Christmas vacation.

Five minutes to ten would be an excellent time to view the dorm.

Had you walked in the door — unnoticed, for you had been sprinkled with invisible powder — on the night of December 20, 1950, you would have seen the Kaileys, Mrs. Blackadar, and Miss Griggs discussing Christmas plans in the living-room; you would have noticed, also, that left-over popcorn from the various parties could still be seen on the rug. Mrs. Goggin, our long suffering housemother, whom we shall only fully appreciate after our graduation, was blinking the lights.

As you went through the door on your right, found just before the living room door, and proceeded up the stairs, you probably wondered if the roof was falling in — so did the roof.

After your weary limbs had climbed two flights of stairs, you found yourself before the door of Betty and Shut, who were wrangling over whether to set the alarm for four or four five.

Oh! Oh! Lights are out, but half of third still aren't in their rooms.

Of all things Muriel Hall was in bed. It's nice to be in bed on time, Moo, but you'd better take your shoes off even if you do sleep in your clothes again.

The next room was empty and Mrs. Goggin was coming up the stairs.

Although Lala is at Mr. and Mrs. Ireland's now, that night she was still in the dorm — putting up her hair. There were three girls in the room; one of them should have told Lala she was dipping her comb into the glass of coffee. Sue Humphrey told her a minute later when she took a drink of Lala's wave set—thinking it was the coffee. "Won't you please wait on for me tomorrow morning," Gail Waldron was begging Betsy Mumford. "I've got to pack," Betsy could only think of a thousand things she had to do herself but if Gail would pay her—.

Joanne Shippee was explaining train directions from Maine to Connecticut to Val Stevens for the hundreth time and was assuring her she would not end up in San Francisco.

Sandy Hatch, returning half a wardrobe, was in the room of Nichols and Gray. Georgia Stanley, in going back to her own room, had tripped over Nancy's open suitcase; Barbara was helping her get out of "Twinnie's" clothes, which had been strewn about the floor.

Sheila Nary, like Moo, was in bed, but Sheila's shoes were off; Jane Blakemore was telling her about Golden Boy.

In the middle room on the front, you would have found Cleo retelling the wonders of Lewiston at Christmas time to Dita Huston, who was assuring Gail Wallis that she would be glad to get her up at three.

When Mrs. Goggin appeared, there was a mad rush to get to everyone's own room.

After Mrs. Goggin had checked the rooms, Colleen Mead plugged an extension cord, which Miss Arndt later pulled out, into a hall socket so that her roommate, Jo Ann Rogers, could continue knitting, and she could do that book report.

At one o'clock when Bev Brown, who usually gets caught at her pranks, and Gail Dibiaso started to bowl with oranges and coke bottles, they awoke Mary Ellen Douglass, who retaliated by grabbing the bottles and sending them clanking down the shoot.

If Joan Thompson and Connie Gardiner, a couple of kids who'll always join in the fun, had been here then, there would have been two more who helped create a mass riot from the quiet bedroom which usually prevails on third hall.

What was second hall doing all this time?

Well, all night long Barbara Lawson had impatiently awaited the time her roommate, Sue Hamilton, would climb into her bed of cracker crumbs, only to find that her own bed had been short-sheeted.

Marylou Flynn had finally persuaded Lynn to wake her up at five-thirty, and Eileen, who had finished her socks, was vowing that there would be war if she was awakened that early—if Flynn made any noise at all.

Buttons Ritchie and Debbie Bevrige were doing everything in their power to make Pee Wee happy and begging the little turtle not to be lonesome.

Janet Bean was dunning everyone for money — no cash — no picture!

After lights went out, second was fairly quiet until three — perhaps because Miss Mayo was in her room studying her cruise and Miss Swift was in Miss Whitney's room discussing vacation plans, or perhaps it was just because most of the girls preferred getting up early in the morning to remaining up late at night.

However, one girl, Margie Murray, couldn't decide which to do and compromised by staying up all night.

One o'clock found Jean Renwick settling down to reading a book in the hall, while her roommate, Lynn McCann, dreamed that her chemistry, history, and packing were all done until four-thirty.

At three o'clock, Sue Darcy dragged herself and a bunch of unironed clothes down to the laundry, where she found Ruthie Berry, as wide awake as an owl in the daytime, industriously pressing skirts.

Three o'clock also found Carol Barton and Nora Horsfield wishing each other a Merry Christmas and being as quiet as a herd of elephants.

Speaking of noise, it was Helen Lunt who took first prize. Bunny, who in the world ever told you that you could get heat out of your radiator by banging it with your roommate's steel book ends? I don't wonder that Donna woke up and, cautiously peeping out from beneath a pile of blankets, asked if Russia had just used the Atomic Bomb!

At five o'clock, Carolyn Brown hopped out of bed, ran to the window, glanced at a lone ski pole, and sat down in the middle of the cluttered floor mournfully repeating, "Wished dust was snow — wished dust was snow."

At five-thirty, Jane Edwards was on her knees before Rosemary saying that she just couldn't get all her stuff in her two suitcases, but cold cruel Kelly refused to part with her typewriter case.

Many made mistakes that morning but Jane Daland made the most unforgiveable blunder; she walked into Margie Murray's room and innocently asked for a Kleenex. Jane Mumford, who was writing a list of New Year's resolutions for her roommate, quietly explained that only Pond's tissues were used in that room.

Six o'clock found Sally Robinson packing a few last minute articles while Kathy Knowles made sure that Sally packed only her own stuff.

Connie Elliot was raising a fuss in the next room; she was missing one of her prized pictures of Hoby and was Janet "sure that is wasn't mixed in with camera club photo's?"

Terry Dean was finding out that a suitcase guaranteed to stand a hundred and fifty pounds would not necessarily hold that amount of clothes.

What was I doing that morning? Why, I was sitting on my bed looking through the stocking that Santa Claus had brought me.

If you didn't visit us this year, the night before vacation, be sure to come next year; don't forget that magic powder!

Holden Hall

This September we were greeted by several new faces, but still had a full quota of veterans to welcome back again. The older inhabitants of this exclusive dorm immediately began to epitomize the terrors of six weeks' exams and all the other horrors the new students would soon face, Joe's Queen's chair being among the most foreboding.

First, thanks must be given to all the teachers and students who cooperated in making the big event of the year at Holden, the dorm party, a signal success. Special thanks to Mr. Thompson who laboriously undertook the direction of the hilarious skit which accompanied this eventful evening.

The first scheduled event on the Holden agenda was the Christmas party with Mr. Clunie as Santa. At this time the poetic genius of the Holdenites was heard in all its rare glory. The inmates exercised their supreme abilities and managed some gifts that were at least unusual if not practical.

Several times throughout the year Friday evenings were devoted to the consumption of coffee and popcorn administered by our amateur but potential cooks. These gatherings were conducive to the development of a school spirit which was felt that we all lacked in some respects.

The ardent ski enthusiasts, despondent to say the least, nevertheless welcomed the scant covering of snow which blanketed our mountainous surroundings, and many Holdenites could be seen on the slopes trying out their coveted boards. The annual winter carnival climaxed the winter season. With this came the usual bustle for bow ties and shoe wax that signifies that some girl is about to be honored with the latest in polish.

Wandering down through the lower corridors we hear the familiar "yak yak" of Hughy Awalt as he enthalls Roderick Swift, David Gove and Ned Jewett with weird tales of his adventures in Washington, D.C.

Upon entering the portals of the lush interior of the pool room we find Lawrence Howard, Levi Swanson, and Bob Davis engaged in a heated controversy over who had winners.

Venturing across the hall we perceive Van Gale completely entangled in a maze of fly rods and reels discussing the respective merits of tying flies with Phil Corey and Bob Lingham.

Poking our heads into the open door of of the spacious suite of Elwell and Ault we observe Dick, Dave, and Allen Awalt assimilating the contents of Crime Comics.

Going down into the basement a din of musical instruments blasting boogie hot and fast resounds through these lower quarters. These talented musicians are Harry "James" Look, Dana "hot lips" Cheyne and Tom Ross. No need to intrude; so we'll proceed to the other end of the basement where the mighty Post Graduates reign.

The neat sanctum of the sub-terranean caverns is the exclusive room of Knowles, Schuman, Ross and Cousins. Doug is relating to Jim, who is sitting on the edge of his bed with mouth agape in amazement, his past experiences with John in Bangor and vicinity. It seems that Doug was fascinated by the "incinerator" car.

Moving back up the stairs to the reputable halls of second where the mighty upper classmen rule, we find Jack Neal deeply engrossed in an immense road map calculating the distance between Portsmouth and - - - - .

In the next room we find Mike Lawthers exercising his dexterous workmanship on another fine portrait of some contemporary comic character amid the snores of Bob "Tiny" Knight who is obviously dreaming of a certain young damsel from New Vineyard.

Slipping cautiously from this abode so as to cause no disturbance we stumble over a pair of ski boots welcoming us to the combo-quarters of Gilman and Lamson. "Speedy" and Tom are discussing the finishings of the Major League baseball teams in their current season. We pause a moment and then embark to the next room where this question may be answered.

Henri Agnese may be biased but he is still rooting for the invincible Yanks while John Hillman, his Down East roommate, can be heard weighing the potentiality of the Red Sox. We'd better disperse before we get involved in a minor riot.

At the end of the long corridor is situated the Durham-Bott establishment where the proprietors are counting their hard earned shekels. Mike Edmands and Ted Clark have apparently been lured into this establishment by some shrewd undertaking of these two business tycoons.

As we stroll along the hall we recognize Mario Lanza's voice in "Be My Love" issuing forth from George Roger's room. Impressionable song, isn't it?

Walking down the hall toward's Mr. Clunie's apartment we chance to meet Fred Smith going at a sprightly gait in the opposite direction with his prize possession in hand, his safety razor. Simultaneously, Donald Sweeny has emerged from his room yelling, "you queer", at the top of his lungs.

At the end of the hall we perceive a first whisper of mournful sound and know it to be Erwin Bacon and his sax. Inside the room we see Franky Linnel at his feet in a near swoon.

In the adjacent room Pete Johnson exasperatedly leans over and turns up the volume of his phonograph to drown out the mellow tones of roommate John Symon's trombone as John plays his favorite—"Muskrat Ramble."

Right next door I hear quite a rumpus. Sure enough it's Skip Bartlett flourishing a baseball bat showing "Petrel Pete" Hussey how he wallops the ball out of the park in Augusta.

Stepping out of their room are Bob Patterson and Charles Daly headed for across the way neatly groomed for the occasion.

Across the hall from me Dick Chick makes the halls ring with gales of his famous laughter while roommate Shelby Putnam is lecturing on the fine points of skiing to shruss-booner Read Cheyne.

Peering over a pile of skiing boots and photographs I see none other than roommate John Mason draped over his bed memorizing his lines for the Senior Play.

This all occurs on a typical February day in Holden Hall.

Student Council

The Gould Academy Student Council is now in its sixth year as an efficient organization.

Its officers are as follows: Leslie Streeter, President; Mary Alice Hastings, Vice-President; Eileen Linnell, Secretary; and Addison Saunders, Treasurer. Mr. Edmond J. Vachon is faculty advisor, and Mr. Harry Miele is the assistant supervisor.

The Council's members serve on the following committees: the Program Assembly Committee, Eileen Linnell, Marilyn Mace, Marie Mills, John Willard, and Dick Emery; the Public Relations and School Publicity Committee, Mary Alice Hastings, Nora Horsfield, and Paul Bartlett; and the Finance Committee, Les Streeter, Addison Saunders, Roger Adams, and Henrietta Swain. The Student Council's representative to the Athletic Council is Les Streeter.

After the first twelve weeks of school, representatives from the freshman class were elected to the Council. They are Mary Ann Myers and Paul Fossett.

The Council's duties are numerous. It sponsored the Christmas formal, selected films and provided other material for morning assembly programs, promoted fund drives for the March of Dimes, Red Cross, and Heart Association. Other duties of the Council were checking class elections, selling tickets and ushering at evening programs and selling tickets at athletic activities. The Council has continually attempted to provide opportunities for every student to participate in school affairs.

The Student Council, one of the most respected organizations at Gould, provides for the representation of the student body. Its members, elected by the student body, hold the responsibility of making known to the Headmaster the students' opinions and vice versa. Membership in the Council is a position of which to be proud, as the members have chosen for a goal the benefit and betterment of Gould Academy.

Musical Memoirs

LAST SPRING

As the school year of 1949-1950 came to an end, the musical activities at Gould were numerous but all entirely enjoyable. In March the students, under the direction of Miss Griggs, presented the comic operetta Pickles, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended.

As the New England Festival to be held at Springfield, Massachusetts, approached, several pupils were seen busily getting ready for the trip. The festival included a band, orchestra, and chorus composed of students from all over New England: from Gould, band — Frederick Williamson; orchestra — Eileen Linnell; chorus — Edith White, Robin Buck, Beverly Lurvey and Nancy Van.

The annual Western Maine Festival was held at Sanford, Maine, at which time the Varsity Glee Club auditioned and received an "A" rating. Solo auditions by Eileen Linnell, Laura Wilson, and Beverly Lurvey also received very good ratings.

Members of the William Rogers Chapman Club attended the Federation Day, at which time Priscilla Pitman, Robin Buck, and Nancy Van all received excellent ratings.

Miss Griggs presented her annual piano and voice recital at the close of the year. The glee clubs and the orchestra participated in the Commencement Day exercises and a group of under-classmen under the direction of Miss Griggs sang in the Baccalaureate choir. Various members of

Different Clubs and Organizations

This year the Girls' Glee Club is divided into two groups: the freshmen and sophomores, who meet on Thursdays, and the juniors and seniors, who meet on Friday. The combined group contains seventy members.

The Boys' Glee Club, made up of twenty-two boys, is working enthusiastically. They meet every Monday.

The Varsity Glee Club consists of a selected group of mixed voices, their rehearsal being held every Tuesday during activity period. There are twenty-three members this year, who, although being a small group, performed a beautiful Christmas Vesper Service.

The William Rogers Chapman Club, consisting of twenty-five members, is a group of talented young people who enter the club through auditions held during the early fall. This club meets every other week on Wednesday. This year's officers are as follows: President, Jean Renwick; Vice President, Les Streeter; Secretary, Sue Hamilton; Treasurer, Harry Look.

The orchestra, although small in size, having only fifteen members, has achieved good tone and balance.

The band, under the direction of Mrs. Pearl Kilborn, played at all the basketball games. We all appreciate the atmosphere which they have added to the games.

The members of the Chapman Club gave a concert this fall during Parents' Day Weekend. The entertainment included solos, duets, small group numbers, and a final ensemble by the entire club.

All of the organizations performed at a Christmas assembly which was held in the William Bingham Gymnasium. Again early in the spring the different groups performed at a concert held in the gymnasium.

The Congregational Choir is made up of Gould students under the direction of Mrs. Emery.

March 13th several students attended the New England Festival. This year the band, orchestra, and chorus met at Auburn, Maine. Those attending from Gould were as follows: Band, Tom Ross; Orchestra, Eileen Linnell; Chorus, Beverly Lurvey, Sally Robinson, Laura Wilson, Nancy Van, Harry Look, and Charles Daley.

The Chapman Club gave a spring concert early in March which featured the junior members. The program consisted of solos, duets, small group numbers, and an ensemble at the end of the concert by the entire group.

Early in the spring a group of singers gave three concerts with Bridgton and Fryeburg academies.

Blue and Gold

At a faculty meeting held in 1942, Mr. Wilbur Myers suggested that Gould be represented by a newspaper, an idea which was heartily seconded by Mr. Ireland.

Having had experience as editorial advisor at Worcester Academy and Brunswick Day School in Greenwich, Connecticut, Mr. Thompson was chosen to explore the possibilities of a publication. When he did so, he found the senior class especially interested, particularly Robert Golderman, a senior leader. After consulting Mr. Fossett, Mr. Thompson chose the ones who showed the most interest and were the best English students. They produced the first mimeographed copy, which was distributed on November 4, 1942.

Under the supervision of Mr. Thompson, and our indispensable printer, Mr. Brown, the BLUE AND GOLD has progressed greatly since the first edition published nine years ago.

Oddly enough, the girls seem to outnumber the members of the male sex where editorship is concerned; in 1942-43, Robert Golderman was editor-in-chief; 1944, Ann Aldrich; 1945, Robert Foster; 1946, Marjory Ann Howard; 1947, Janice Bowman; 1948, Ruth Judkins; 1949, Guy Emery and Ed Hickox; 1950, Marilyn Judkins; and 1951, Sally Robinson.

This year's staff is exceptionally large; it needs to be because the paper has been continually growing. Not only do students read the paper, but also members of the faculty, alumni and trustees. The circulation has increased to the present total of approximately five hundred copies.

Our paper enables us to have a written account of the events which occur throughout the year. Also, it gives other schools who exchange papers with us a chance to see how Gould life progresses.

The editorial board this year consists of the following: Sally Robinson, editor; Joy Smith and Lorraine Swan, assistant editors; Janet Bean, photograph editor; Ted Chadbourne, sports editor; Alberta Merrill and Les Streeter, feature editors; Eileen Linnell and Ruth Donahue, alumni editors; Laura Wilson and Mary Alice Hastings, exchange editors; Donna Littlehale, circulation manager; and Peggy Champlain, business advertising manager. Besides these, it has twenty-one able reporters, and five necessary typists.

This year, there have been many changes made in the paper. The first edition was six pages long — a definite advancement; the texture of the paper has been greatly improved to a smoother, neater type. The paper published today is longer than that of last year or any previous year.

For the past six years, the BLUE AND GOLD has been a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association of Columbia University. Also, it has been entered in contests for secondary school papers, sponsored by the Colby Echo of Colby College.

Because Mr. Thompson feels that the paper belongs to the students, it is strictly a student publication. This gives the students a chance to express themselves and gives them experience, not only in the field of writing, but, also in the field of management.

Our paper is not only fun, but it is one of the most educational extra-curricular activities of Gould Academy.

Camera Club

Blinding flashes, the click of shutters, the snap of film-pack holders — it's only our shutterbugs in action. This year, 1950 - 1951, has seen much activity amongst the many Camera Club enthusiasts, both old and new. The passing of another year means that the series of sixteen interesting and useful lectures and demonstrations on Photography for Fun has been completed.

Early in the fall a print contest was held with the subject, "Gould Academy buildings". Any variation was acceptable, as long as one of the buildings appeared as the main subject or as a background. Most of the photographers used the latter idea and showed Gould students in their everyday actions.

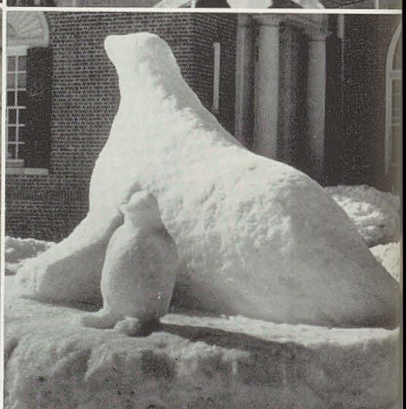

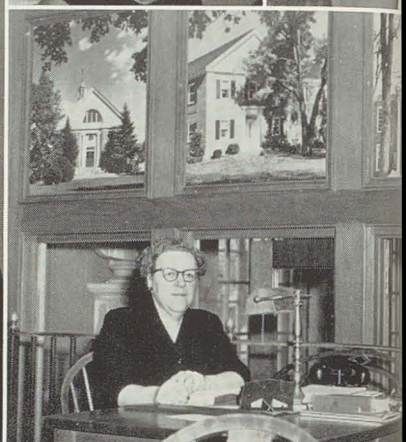

Kodachrome slides have received more attention this year than last. Many new "Pony" cameras have been seen on the campus, so the Club has had several showings of the work of both faculty and students. Many members now share an increasing interest in this new phase of photography.

As December rolled around, the dark-rooms were filled with special masks, snow negatives, and Christmas card paper. About one thousand cards were made during a three week period.

As usual one or more Club members have always been on the job at football and basketball games, and at ski and track meets. The happy memories of formals, special parties, and school events have been recorded on film and prints made available to all students for their scrapbooks. Again the Camera Club has been responsible for the clever pictures entered in the "Who's Who" page of the ACADEMY HERALD, as well as several full pages of photos of life at Gould. Pictures have been planned and finished for every issue of the BLUE AND GOLD, and several have been published in Bethel, Boston, and Lewiston newspapers.

Splendid experience was gained by the many members who helped make the hundreds of prints which were turned out after the Winter Carnival, including pictures of the events, the sculptures, the plays, and the coronation.

After additional print contests in April and May, the annual June exhibition was the climax of the Club's year. Fifty enlargements of the best prints made during the year were displayed in the French room, as well as hundreds of small prints of the events of the year. Many members, on their way to earn their silver pin awards, showed great enthusiasm in working for this exhibition. Pictures taken in past years were a part of the large display in Holden Hall.

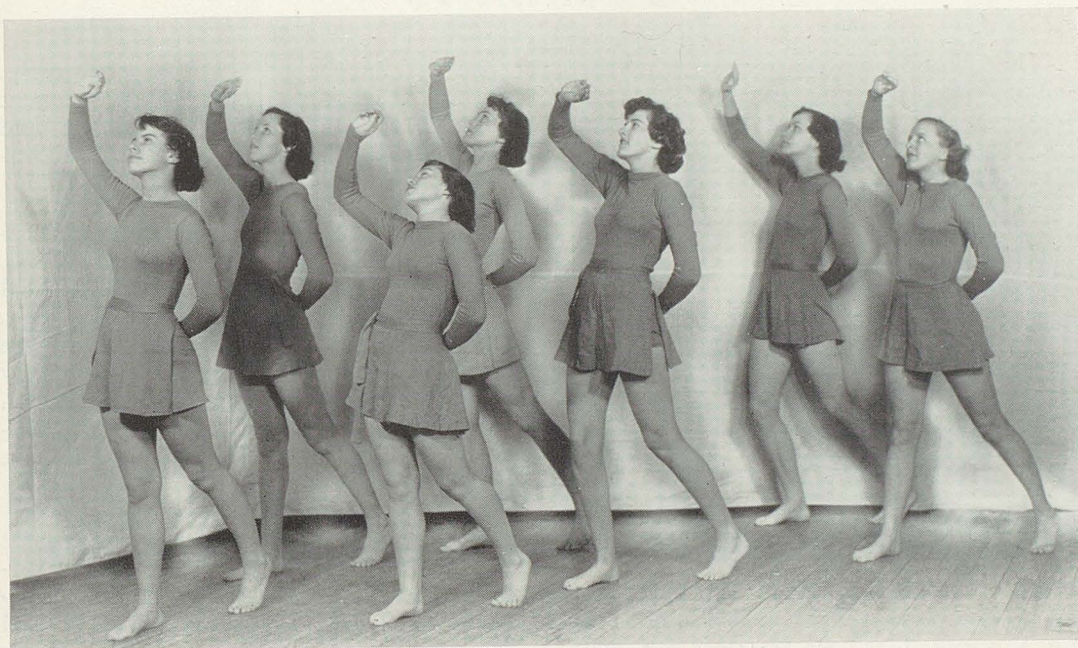

There were about sixty members this year. The officers elected were — Peter Hussey, President; Janet Bean, Vice-President; Sally Robinson, Jane Daland, Kathy Knowles, Secretaries; James Durham, Treasurer; Richard Chick, Morrill Bott, Print Directors. There has always been a good crew of workers whenever they were needed for the making of special prints.

Mr. Gayle A. Foster is still our never-tiring counselor. It is through his endless hours of work and preparation that the club is made so valuable to us. Mr. Foster is past president of the Pictorial Photographers of America, and one of the outstanding photographers in our country. Those who have worked with him know the true value of his extensive knowledge.

The Camera Club serves both the student body and the school in many ways. It has not only furnished an enjoyable hobby for many, but has also paved the way to a successful career for others.

Dramatics

The annual presentation of the three one-act plays during the Gould Academy Winter Carnival took place Friday evening, February 23, in the William Bingham Gymnasium.

The first was a comedy, The Twelve Pound Look, centering around Harry Sims, who was about to be knighted for "services rendered," played by Dana Cheyne, and his wife, Lady Sims, who has suffered long and silently, played by Marylou Flynn. The rest of the cast was made up of Katy, a public stenographer, Lala Pelkey, and Tombes, the family butler, Phillip Lovejoy.

The second play was The Flattering Word, concerning the Rigley family and their conflicting opinions on the question of Rena Zooker's desire to act. Mr. Rigley, D.D., portrayed by Bob Knight, was much opposed to the theater; his wife, played by Jean Renwick, wishes to convince him differently; Lena Zooker, Henrietta Swain, wishes to start a theatrical career. Mrs. Zooker, the town gossip, played by Laura Wilson, and Eugene Tesh, a professional actor both on and off the stage, Thomas Ross, added the finishing touches to the play cast.

The last was Fumed Oak, an unpleasant comedy in two scenes. Henry Gow, played by Robert Patterson, is the typical hen-pecked husband, whose wife, Doris, Joy Smith, has something to say all the time. Their daughter, Elsie, played by Nancy Dupee is the snuffy adenoidal type. The mother-in-law, Mrs. Rocket, portrayed by Ruth Donahue, was all the term mother-in-law implies.

The stage and properties manager was Sally Robinson; the prompter was Connie Elliott; the makeup committee consisted of Dale Thurston, Mrs. David Thompson, and "Joe" Roderick. Tribute should be paid to these people for the time and effort in helping to promote the play's success.

On the night of April 13th, the William Bingham Gymnasium was again filled with eager enthusiasts awaiting the rising of the curtain on the Senior play, Ever Since Eve, by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements. This play centers around Johnny Clover, played by John Mason, a seventeen year old boy who, having just been appointed editor of his school paper, runs into many difficulties. Mr. and Mrs. Clover, played by Jim Durham and Joy Smith, are the somewhat bewildered parents who regard the matter rather indifferently. Johnny and his friend, Spud Erwin, Bob Knight, become very upset when they learn that they are to have two girls—Susan Blake, portrayed by Marylou Flynn, and Betsy Erwin, by Eileen Linnell—as their assistants on the paper. Martha Willard, Peggy Champplain, once a newspaper woman now resigned to teaching journalism, and Henry Quinn, the youngest high school principal in the state played by Bob Tift, add an air of romance to the plot. Officer Simmons, a friendly small town cop, played by Lester Coolidge, Lucybelle Lee, a typical sweet Southern belle played by Nancy Van, and Preston Hughes, the great high school athlete played by Mike Edmands, all contributed their talents to the success of the play.

Tribute should be paid to Dale Thurston, Mrs. David Thompson, and "Joe" Roderick for their excellent job as makeup artists, to the business and stage managers, Mary Alice Hastings and Sally Robinson, respectively, and to the director, David Thompson, who all contributed much time and effort to make the play a success.

Football

Gould Academy's 1950 football season opened unofficially on the 11th of September with the first full scale practice.

Coach Scott and his assistants, Coaches Roderick, Kailey and Emery, had a lot of men from which to choose the eleven players who would meet South Paris in two weeks. Many of '49's team had graduated and left numerous open spots in the line-up, the most important being the quarterback's spot vacated by the play-making veteran, Dick Marshall. In this spot were two strong contenders—Roddy Collette and Henri Agnese. Gordon Howe and Ray Chase were back to take up the halves' position, and in the fullback's territory was hard-running, hard-hitting Bean.

The line lost a lot of wallop on Hamilton's graduation, but we still had Captain Rip Bennett's Sunday punch. Adams did a swell job of taking over the center's spot left by Hill, with Patterson and Mason swapping off as guards on his right. Lowell and Douglass held down the tackles' positions, while Streeter, Emery, Ferguson and Harry Bartlett took turns roving the ends, the essentials to a team's end-run defense and passing attack.

With this group Gould faced the powerful South Paris team on the 23rd. At the end of the first half the situation was very black indeed, to say the least. Paris had walked all over Gould to score fourteen points without having their goal ever endangered. However, the second phase of the game was just in the reverse, with Gould having the breaks and the ball; but when the final whistle sounded the Gould boys were lacking just two points of an important victory. Final tally: 14-13 South Paris.

The next Saturday, the Mexico Pintos took us on at their home stamping grounds. The afternoon was exceedingly warm, but when the dust had settled at the first half Gould was ahead and stayed there to win the first victory of the year: 20 - 6.

The following contest was the clash between Farmington and Gould at Alumni Field, which was a rather weird affair with exceptionally poor and brilliant playing on both sides; but the third game on the schedule ended to the tune of 37 - 6 in favor of Gould.

On Parents' Day at Gould, Lyndon Institute, Vermont's power boys who had held the Huskies to a 7 - 7 tie the previous season, was present to give the home team a battle royal. Although the game featured many fumbles and misplays the score at the finale was again 7 up.

The program next carried us to Berlin, N.H., for another rough and rugged game that cost dearly in playing material; however, even with the injuries, the Huskies came through again to push Berlin under 14 - 6.

At last Livermore Falls' famous squad presented itself to our scouts. Coach Kailey did an excellent job of bringing to our attention the strong points and the weaknesses of our forthcoming rival. If the team's hopes were high that afternoon before the game's start, they were deflated shortly, for we were whitewashed for the worst upset in Gould's football history: 39 - 0.

Still feeling mighty low the squad traveled to Wilton the following weekend with the odds heavily in favor of Wilton Academy. Gould scored first when Wilton's ball carrier was hauled down behind his own goal line for a Gould safety and two points; but back came Wilton with a T.D. and the point after to clinch the game for them.

As the last game of the season appeared, the traditional game with Fryeburg Academy on the home field, the team's spirit rose. The whole gang played the best game of the year to swamp the visitors 33 - 6 and end the season in a triumphant burst of steam.

So closed the book on the football careers at Gould of Capt. Wayne Bennett, Hoby Lowell, Dick Douglass, Gordon Howe, Jerry Emery, Harry Bartlett, Les Streeter and Ray Chase. Back for more are Adams, Paul Bartlett, Patterson, Ferguson and Agnese.

The J.V.'s came through with a much better record than the teams previous to them had carried. Promising material showed up in understudies this year, such as a better passing attack than their predecessors have had.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross Country

Cross Country was resumed last fall with the same sound of pounding feet on Gould's 2.7 mile course and with as much spirit as ever. With five letter men returning from last year, Chadbourne, Saunders, Coolidge, H. Merrill, and Hastings, the Gould Harriers, led by Captain Ted Chadbourne and under the alert coaching of Mr. Fossett, came through, winning three out of four meets aided by the combined efforts of Lovejoy, Willard, K. Merrill, Jordan, Durham, and Ault.

The first meet, held on October 5, at Andover, proved to be victorious for the Gould harriers with a score of 21-44. The race started with a swift sprint for first place, the battle continuing vigorously at the half between Gould's Captain Chadbourne and Andover's Captain Chauisson. Chauisson came through four strides ahead of Chadbourne, however, smashing the record of Andover's three mile course by 52 seconds. Lovejoy, Saunders and Hastings captured the next three places, followed by Hall, of Andover, Willard, H. Merrill and Jordan, all of Gould.

The Gould runners won their second meet at the Bethel course on October 12 against Fryeburg with a perfect score of 15-20 in spite of being hindered by rain. Ted Chadbourne won with a time of 14:29 with Saunders hard on his heels. Gould runners also took the next six places.

On Thursday, October 19, the Gould harriers were defeated by Portland, 20-37, on Gould's home course. Portland swept the first three places; then came Ted Chadbourne, Bethel, followed by Coolidge, who took fifth. This was only Gould's second loss in four years, both being to Portland.

The Gould runners journeyed to Rumford on Oct. 24, to defeat the Stephens High team, 21-39, making a total of three wins out of four meets. The course, entirely of paved surface, was just under three miles. The day was dark and cold—exceptionally cold for a running event. Ted Chadbourne and Les Coolidge finished in a tie for first place after exhausting Stephen's Captain, Ashley Clark. Rumford took third and fourth places while Lovejoy and Saunders conquered fifth and sixth for Gould.

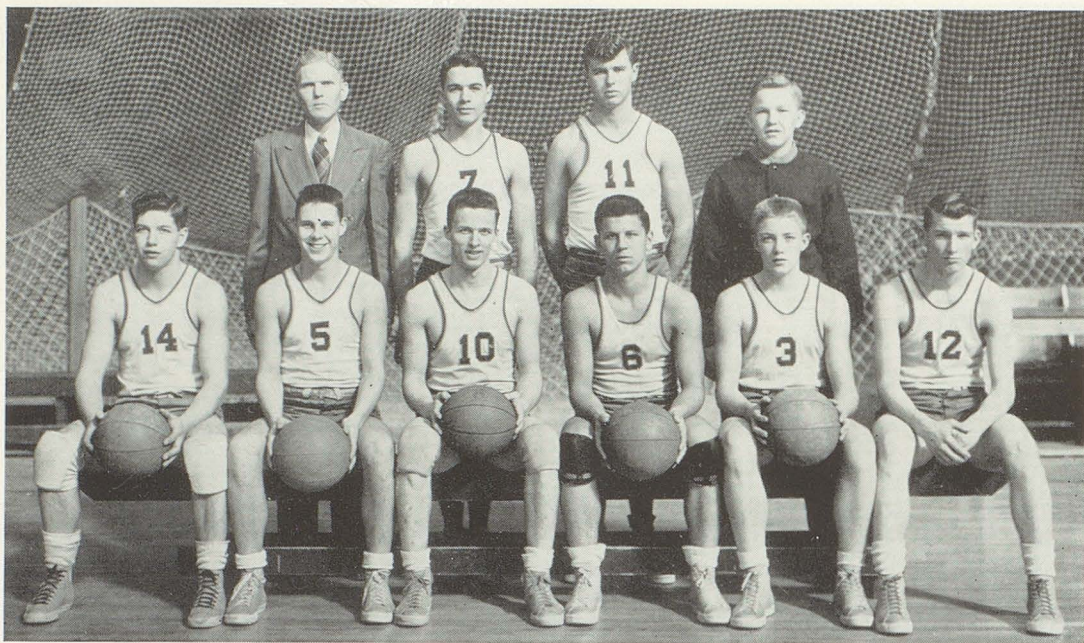

In the State Cross Country Meet at Orono, November 2, Gould ranked seventh among fifteen teams. First place was taken by Old Town, while Bangor and Lee Academy took second and third respectively. Captain Chadbourne took 31st place in the meet, Saunders 43, Coolidge 60, H. Merrill 61, Hastings 74, Willard 79, and Lovejoy 95, due to a sprained ankle.

Four of Gould's present seven letter men will return next year — Captain elect, Edward Hastings, P. Lovejoy, H. Merrill, and J. Willard. K. Merrill and A. Jordan are also promising material.

Basketball

An expected "off" season in Gould's basketball cycle was salvaged this winter by a willing team which started slowly but finished as a serious threat to any of their league opponents. With seven wins and seven losses in the eight school conference, Gould tied Mexico for third place by virtue of topping that club in both matches. Two non-conference games were dropped to a strong Guilford team. Although not an impressive record, it was still good for a green team; Coach Anderson credits the players with showing more improvement in a single season than any team in the past ten years.

It was a building year for Mr. Anderson, who had only center "Hoby" Lowell remaining from last season's starters. Early in the season "Coach" sifted his players carefully, giving each a try at the open positions; at the half-way mark in the schedule the last of the starting positions had been permanently earned. Dick Elwell was right forward, a deft ball-handler and consistent scorer. On his left was Pete Johnson, whose set shots and foul-line accuracy made him second-high scorer. Henri Agnese gave "right guard" a scoring punch. "Andy" Biden, an excellent guard, started in the remaining post, but shared it about equally with Wayne Bennett, whose aggressive play under the backboard was often valuable.

As the team handled the ball well but lacked shooting power, the offense was very deliberate, taking time to set up shots. Not until a game had been broken wide open would a fast break be risked. Man-to-man defense was standard, even on small floors, with two men frequently assigned to the opponent's ace. The average score for both Gould and the opposition was 40 points.

Capt. Lowell was high scorer with 227 points, scored mostly on a pivot shot. Another of his hallmarks was an off-balance, one-arm shot which attracted fouls like a magnet. By sinking 64% of his attempts, "Hoby" scored 87 points from the foul line alone in 18 games. His 75 in 16 conference games shattered the league record of 55 set by Farmington's Brinkman in 18 games last year. Other leading scorers were Johnson 106, Elwell 100, and Agnese 99.

The loss of Lowell will leave a tremendous hole to fill as his scoring will be hard to replace. Wayne Bennett is another whose steady play will be greatly missed. Two other letter men in Jim Durham and Dick Douglass will also be missing when next season rolls around.

Still, prospects for 1951-52 look bright with four regulars returning. Elwell, Agnese, Biden, and Johnson should make a strong nucleus for next year's team. They all played good ball during the last part of the season and were performing their best in the final games when they played the State Champions, Livermore Falls, in an overtime and defeated Franklin County Champions, Jay, 61-40 and Bridgton 65-45. Others who should be good contenders for positions are Paul Bartlett, who joined the varsity late in the season, and Ed Hastings, Paul Fossett, Dick Emery, Frank Murphy, and Dave Jordan, who won four games in eleven starts as the Junior Varsity under Coach Bowhay.

Those who have won their letters are Lowell, Agnese, Biden, Johnson, Elwell, Durham, Bennett, Douglass, and Manager Wayne Gilman.

Winter Sports

This year the Blue and Gold ski team, consisting of Captain Les Streeter, Raymond Chase, Shelby Putnam, Gerry Emery, Tom Lamson, Addison Saunders, Norman Ferguson, Roger Adams, and Manager Dick Chick, under the direction of ex-Middlebury captain, Paul Kailey, commenced the season at a fast clip on January 13 by overwhelming Berlin, N. H., in a two-event contest which was cut short due to lack of snow.

During the next three weeks the skiers scored consecutive victories at Lyndon Institute, the Edward Little and Rumford Carnivals. On January 19 and 20 the team, registering a near sweep in the cross country as Streeter, Ferguson and Lamson placed first, second and third, triumphed over Lyndon Institute and the Dartmouth freshmen. In Edward Little's Carnival, held at Bethel due to complete lack of snow on the Auburn slopes, and in the Rumford Carnival, enough balanced power was displayed in each of the four events to gain substantial victories.

The Maine Interscholastic Meet, originally scheduled for Waterville, was held in Andover as the result of a heavy rain during the week. Despite good showings by Streeter and Chase, Gould was unable to cope with Edward Little on that particular occasion, and when the smoke had cleared G. A. was in second place ahead of Rumford.

The second place in the state meet made Coach Kailey's charges eligible for the New England Interscholastic meet held at Middlebury, Vermont, the next weekend. Following a poor showing in the cross country, the downhill skiers earned an excellent team score in that event to climb to within one point of the pace-setting Edward Little skiers at the end of the first day. The next morning's slalom saw Hanover High slip into first, three points ahead of Gould. Streeter's first, Chase's 15th, Emery's 17th, and Putnam's 24th in the jumping gained G. A. a second place in the event but failed to overcome Hanover's lead. Gould remained in second four points ahead of the Auburn Eddies.

Carnival weekend saw the skimen gain three team firsts as they set down Edward Little, Lyndon Institute, Lebanon, N. H., Berlin, N. H., and Rumford. The downhill was won by Lamson, with Streeter second, Adams ninth, Saunders eleventh, and Chase fifteenth, while Streeter won the slalom, with Lamson sixth, Saunders eighth, Chase twelfth, and Putnam eighteenth. The gold medal for the cross country also went to Gould as Ferguson paced the field. These team victories, plus a good showing in the jumping gave G. A. a substantial five point margin at the end of the contest.

The Eastern Interscholastics at Andover, Maine, marked the close of another ski season at Gould. On the opening day Gould skiers registered two firsts as Streeter annexed the downhill and Ferguson took the cross country. In the cross country G. A. made probably its best single event showing of the year as Ferguson, Streeter, Lamson, Chase, and Adams placed first, third, fourth, ninth, and sixteenth. At the end of the first day Gould led by four points. Fate, however, was not to smile on the skiers in the final two events, and the skimen again occupied the second spot when the final jump had been made.

Next year, with returning lettermen Roger Adams and Norman Ferguson plus several up from the reserves, it is hoped that Mr. Kailey will be able to again bring forth a strong team to carry on the reputation of Gould Academy.

Baseball

As March rolled around the corner, the baseball season of 1950 began with everyone in high hopes of repeating the outstanding record of the previous year. With practically all letter men back with the exception of Cad Bennett, star slugger, and Rickie Rolfe, ace pitcher who recently signed a contract with the St. Louis Cardinals, the team began its practice drills with great exuberance.

On the afternoon of April 26, Coach Bowhay took his team to Gorham, N.H. There they fought a close battle with Dave Jordan and Clint Mason combining a neat 2 hit performance. This did not prove sufficient, the Huskies ending up on the losing end of a 3-1 score, as the home team pushed across two runs in the third.

The following week, perhaps a little too sure of themselves, the team journeyed to South Paris. South Paris went on a scoring spree in the seventh inning, sending six men across the plate. The Gould nine finally finished the game behind South Paris, 8-5.

A little disgusted at their poor beginning, Gould traveled to Norway and set them down 8-4 behind the seven-hit pitching of Clint Mason.

Finally tasting victory, the spirited nine returned home and turned back a rival, Fryeburg, 11-8. The outstanding inning was the fourth as the fighting Huskies pushed five men around the diamond and across the plate. Although a little shaky at first, Mason ended up showing his natural form.

Behind the excellent pitching of Mason and a newcomer, Bean, Gould quickly added two more victories to its list as this time it defeated South Paris 5-3 and trampled the Pintos from Mexico 24-2. A great team was now forming, playing real championship ball.

On May 19, a more experienced Bates Freshman team used four pitchers in overcoming Capt. Rolfe's team mates by the wide margin of 14-8. Gould showed perhaps their poorest game of the year against Bates.

To prove their ability to keep going under great pressure, the Gould men tackled Norway on Alumni Field and gave the crowd a dazzling nine inning thriller. In the eighth, Norway scored a single run to tie the score at 6 runs apiece. Then in the first of the ninth, in his top form, Mason forced three Norway men to ground out consecutively, pitcher to first. Battling in sixth position, Durgin reached on an error, stole second and went to third as Smith and Mason walked. Tyner, of Norway, then made the mistake of missing the plate on 4 pitches, forcing Durgin in with the winning run and ending the contest 7-6.

Following this great game, Gould fattened up its record as it ended its regular '50 season with two easy triumphs, 10-8 and 12-0, against Fryeburg and Mexico respectively.

Now coach Bowhay was informed that Gould was picked to participate in the state M-S tournament.

Full of confidence and fight the boys started the tournament with a game against the class S champion, West Paris. Bean was slated to pitch for the Huskies.

In the first inning both teams pushed a single run over the plate, and in the third West Paris repeated with a single tally. Gould scored once in the fourth and fifth and Paris again in the seventh, leaving the score tied at the end of the regulation nine innings. In the first of the tenth Mason, who had relieved Bean in the seventh, did a magnificent job as he set the Paris team down in order. Up first for Gould was Mike Boyd who walked. He was moved to second on a sacrifice by Kendall. Then, as the crowd stood tense, Charlie Smith promptly banded the ball between second and short, scoring Boyd with the winning run. Bean and Mason combined excellent pitching for this victory.

On the third of June, Gould, behind the near perfect four-hit pitching of Clint Mason, moved themselves into the third round of the tournament as they defeated Standish High, 8-1, on Garcelon Field in Lewiston. Dave Durgin was outstanding at the plate as he collected three hits in three trips.

Again at Garcelon Field, Gould met Boothbay Harbor High. As lead off man, Dick Marshall immediately took matters into his own hands as he clouted a round-tripper into deep left field. This, in the end, proved to be the winning run as Boothbay never did touch Gould's Sonny Bean for a run as he pitched a spectacular three hit shut out, 5-0.

At Bowdoin another thriller was handed the fans as Gould edged out St. Ignatius in a 10-inning battle for the Western M-S title. Having scored single runs in the second, seventh, and eighth, plus two in the fifth, Gould was tied with the foe at five even. Then in the tenth with one man out, Paul Bartlett walked. Mike Boyd then successfully sacrificed Bartlett to second. Now with two men out and a man on second, Ronnie Kendall and his long bat banded a double deep into center field territory, scoring Bartlett with the tie breaking run. Clint Mason then proceeded to keep the Sanford team from scoring in their half of the 10th, thus sending Gould into the final game.

Williams High of Oakland was well-known for its big bats, but dependable Clint Mason really showed his stuff as he silenced the Oakland stickers to a mere 3 hits as the Gould men made it a decisive victory by a 11-1 margin. The Huskies collected a total of 14 hits, three being contributed by Mike Boyd who collected a triple in the eighth. Now Gould had fulfilled their hopes of repeating as they were again presented the state championship trophy.

Next year the prospects are unknown as eight of this year's starters are graduating, leaving almost every position to be filled. The men who are leaving are Charlie Smith, Burt Rolfe, Mike Boyd, Ronnie Kendall, Dave Durgin, Bob Hamilton, and Clint Mason. These boys have done a great job.

1950 TRACK TEAM

Track

Under the combined coaching of two very fine coaches, "Joe" Roderick and Robert Scott, the Gould Academy track team opened its 1950 season with a meet with Cheverus High School on April 29 at Bethel. The Gould track team went to an easy victory, 75 - 41, over Cheverus. Nearly all the events were swept by Gould men; however, the visitors had two very good hurdle men who placed first and second in both the high and low hurdles. The leading scorers for Gould were Captain Dick Klain and Fritz Norton who picked up two firsts and a third for eleven points each.

A few days later the class A Bridgton Academy team came to Gould for a practice meet. The visitors came out on top, but the meet gave the Gould boys some very good practice and some fun too.

On May 11, the Gould team entertained the powerful Farmington High School at Bethel. With the aid of the lanky Paul Brinkman, the Farmington team edged the Gould tracksters to a 60 - 57 defeat. Dick Klain picked up a good share of Gould's points with twenty-three for himself. Bob Tift, Les Streeter, and Hoby Lowell combined to give the team another seventeen; Ted Chadbourne, Norman Ferguson, Bob Hogan, Warren Hastings, and John Symons got the remaining seventeen points.

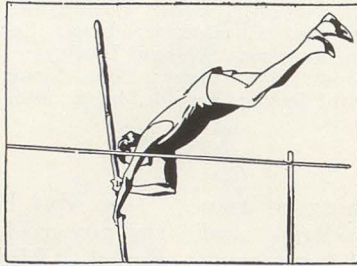

The annual Bates Relays were attended by the Gould track team on May 20. In the field events, which were held in the morning, Hoby Lowell took second in the javelin, and Fritz Norton placed third in the pole vault and broad jump. The relays in the afternoon showed Gould placing in every one. Bob Tift, Frank Linnell, John Symons, and Dick Klain got together to get second in the 440 relay. Gould placed third in the 880 with Bob Tift, Merle Noyes, Les Streeter, and Fritz Norton as a team. In the mile relay, Ted Chadbourne, Merle Noyes, Jim Ault, and Norman Ferguson took a strong second just behind Farmington. The last event, the mile medley, had Gould in third place again with Dick Klain, Fritz Norton, Norman Ferguson, and Les Streeter as the team. The Gould team wound up behind Kennebunk and Cape Elizabeth for third place for the whole meet.

In the state competition at Seavern's Field, Waterville, the Gould team got seventh place. Hoby Lowell took second in the javelin; Fritz Norton tied for third in the pole vault, and Ted Chadbourne and Norman Ferguson were fourth and fifth in the mile. The Kennebunk team won the meet for the state championship.

Jerry Emery has been elected captain of the 1951 track team. Emery, the men who will back him up, and the coaches will certainly work hard to make the 1951 season a successful one.

EDWARD HASTINGS '53

Athletic Council

The Gould Academy Athletic Council, a relatively new organization which has proven its worth, is just completing its fourth successful year.

The council consists of five permanent and five elective members. The five permanent and five elective members are: Mr. Elwood Ireland, chairman; Mr. Ordell Anderson, faculty director of athletics; Mr. Wilbur Myers, bursar; Mr. Richmond Roderick, Physical Education Director for Boys; and Miss Doryce Arndt, Girls' Physical Education Director.

Mr. Clayton F. Fossett was elected by the council to represent the head coaches for this year. The other four elective members, chosen by their respective associations and organizations, are as follows: Leslie Streeter, Student Council representative; Mary Alice Hastings, Girls' Athletic Association representative; Mr. Leslie Davis, trustee representative; and Mr. Elmer Bennett, alumni representative.

The council, which meets three times a year, selects the types of athletic awards to be given, approves the schedule of athletics, carefully selects officials to preside at home games, approves athletic budgets, and authorizes equipment. It also takes care of any unexpected problems connected with athletics which may present themselves. All of these functions the council performs well, under the efficient direction of its chairman, Elwood F. Ireland, our Headmaster.

Besides the duties mentioned above, the council selects those who are to receive letters. There are specific requirements which a student must meet in order to receive a "G".

If a boy has done exceptionally well in sports, having earned enough credits for six letters in succession or seven letters in all, he is entitled to a blue sweater with a "G" on its pocket. To be awarded a sweater is certainly an honor of which to be proud. Leslie Streeter, one of Gould's outstanding athletes, received a sweater in the spring of 1950.

The following have received letters:

In Skiing, 1949 - 1950

Leslie Streeter, Richard Marshall, Alfred Norton, Norman Ferguson, Thomas Lamson, Raymond Chase, Richard Chick, and Morris Foye. (Mgr.).

In Basketball, 1950

Charles Smith (Capt.), Norman Lowell (Capt. Elect), Clint Mason, Mike Boyd, Bob Hamilton, Henri Agnese, Ronald Kendall, Rex Bennett, Gayland Dooen, (Mgr.).

In Baseball, 1950

In Track, 1950

In Cross Country, 1950

Ted Chadbourne (Capt.), Les Coolidge, Addison Saunders, Phil Lovejoy, John Willard, Edward Hastings, (Capt. Elect), Harley Merrill, Shelby Putnam, (Mgr.).

In Football, 1950

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Boys' Physical Education

Under the careful supervision of "Joe" Roderick, Boys' Physical Education has progressed in much the same fine manner of previous years, although this year more exercise and less play has been stressed in order to get the boys in better physical shape for the armed services.

The lower classes alternate their days of "gym" with corrective classes for those who need them.

More exercises and harder work make up the schedule of the junior and senior classes; they do more exercises, such as wrestling and carries, for the purpose of building up the body.

Although the boys' gym classes are made up of much work, there is also a sufficient amount of play. Tumbling and working on the tramp-o-line have been enjoyed so much that many have become quite skillful. The sports, football, basketball, and baseball, are, also, enjoyed by the members of the classes. There are, also, many other sports that the classes participate in, such as volleyball, badminton, squash, and hand ball.

Twice a year, strength tests are given to see how much each student has progressed. These are composed of back-lift, leg-lift, grip-strength, pullups, dips, and others. A recording of the student's height and weight is made each year, also.

We are very lucky to have such excellent instruction and equipment to help mold us into stronger and more healthy individuals.

BARRY YORK '53

SENIOR VOLLEYBALL TEAM

First row: Margaret Champlain; Eileen Linnell; Janet Mason; Laura Wilson. Second row: Grace Taylor; Susan Hamilton; Mary Hastings; Davene Marble; Christine Willard; Nancy Cummings.

Girls' Sports

Hockey started off our busy schedule this year. Each night after school enthusiasts flocked to the field for an hour packed with bumps and bruises but, above all, with fun. After several vigorous practices, the class teams were chosen. The sophomores, juniors, and seniors tied for first place, but the juniors, led by their captain, Carolyn Brown, succeeded in capturing top place. A Blue and Gold team was chosen from all four classes, but because of poor weather the final game was not played off.

The wonderful fall weather and scenery must have inspired some people for there were many who enjoyed the long hikes that were taken once each week under the supervision of Laura Wilson. On Saturdays eight and ten mile hikes were enjoyed by some and thought tedious by others. Early on brisk Sunday mornings, the residents of Bethel were aroused by the joyous shouts of the girls starting out to cook their own breakfast out of doors.

Many energetic Gouldsters made their way to the bowling alley to find out just how good they really were. Nancy Dupee and Janice Lord were the two high scorers bringing the junior class in first.

The remodeled tennis courts drew many more new participants. They were under the supervision of Mrs. Richardson who has put in many hours of work with the girls.

Many junior and senior girls displayed talent in the Modern Dance Club which meets once a week. With the help of Miss Arndt, the girls have worked out many original dances.

As in previous years, volleyball induced much excitement. The equal abilities of the students presented a problem in selecting the teams. However, the championship was determined in favor of the seniors when each class had competed.

The first snow was welcomed joyously by the ardent outdoor athletes, and skiing got off with a big start under the coaching of Mr. Richardson and Mr. Kailey. The skiers were divided into different classes according to their skills and were taught everything from snow plowing to slalom.

Basketball for many is the favorite sport of the year. The unlimited dribble and several other changes added new interest.

The afternoon practices improved the new techniques. Later the class teams were chosen to compete in the finals, and for the first time in many years the sophomores won the tournament.

In the spring we had badminton, tumbling, and softball to look forward to.

Much credit for the success of the classes is due to our gym teacher, Miss Arndt, who has never hesitated to give up her spare time to help us. Her new ideas, put to work in her carefully planned program, have made athletics more interesting for the girls.

MAXIMS TO GUIDE A YOUTH

By One of Your Neighbors

Keep good company or none. Never be idle; if your hands cannot be usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of your mind.

Always speak the truth; make few promises; live up to your engagements; when you speak to any person, look him straight in the face.

Good company and good conversation are the very sinews of virtue. Good character is above all things else. Never listen to loose or idle conversation; you had better be poisoned in your blood than in your principles.

Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts. If any one should speak evil of you, let your life be so virtuous that none will believe him.

Always speak and act as if in the presence of your Maker; drink no intoxicating liquors; ever live, misfortune excepted, within your income; when you retire to bed think over what you have done during the day.

Never speak lightly of any one, make no haste to be rich if you would prosper; small and steady gains give competency with tranquillity of mind.

Never play any game of chance; avoid the temptation through fear that you may not withstand it. Earn your money before you spend it. Never run in debt unless you see a way to get out of it.

Never borrow, if you can possibly avoid it. Be just before you are generous. Keep yourself innocent if you would be happy. Save when you are young, to spend when you are old.

Never think what you do to alleviate the sufferings of your fellow beings time or money lost. Be kind and generous, for the whole human family is depending one upon the other.
